Territorial Capitol (U-33)

Structure

Museum centered in block bounded by Main, Center, First South and First West Streets. Red sandstone, rectangular, three bays x four bays, two stories on raised basement, hipped roof. Designed by Truman O. Angell as one wing of a Greek cross plan to be topped by a Moorish dome at the crossing. Only this wing was completed in 1855, no further work was done because the territorial legislature moved to Salt Lake City.

(over)

Restored 1927; Young, and Hansen, architects. Opened to the public in 1930 as Utah's first state park. 7 ext. photos (1967); 3 int. photos (1967); 1 photocopy (n.d.); 5 data pages (1967).

Card prepared March 1975.
